

Romans chapter 9.

Before you answer these questions on chapters 9-11 you need to understand who Paul is talking to. You must put on Israel glasses because these chapters are only about the nation of Israel and God's sovereign choice of them over the other nations and who will be in the line for Messiah to come through. Not talking about individual salvation of election to heaven or hell. These chapters show God's election and use of Israel to show His mercy and salvation to both Jew and Gentile.
